But instead of a serious duel, a surprising twist of fate turns their potential conflict into the beginning of an epic friendship.

Soon, d'Artagnan and his new friends find themselves caught in a dangerous web of political intrigue. The main villain isn't a dragon or a monster, but a cunning and ruthless man named Cardinal Richelieu. He's the chief minister to the King and wields immense power. Richelieu wants to weaken the King's authority and often works behind the scenes, making him a truly formidable foe. He's the kind of villain who makes you appreciate the heroes even more!
